Fine Displays Of Gifts For Late Shoppers

Local Stores Replenish Their Stocks; Open Evenings Next Week

Bought all your Christmas presents yet? If not, read a little more. Local merchants still have plenty of attractive gift merchandise on hand. Many have replenished their stocks this week in anticipation of a grand finale to the Christmas shopping campaign next week. The advertising columns of this paper are replete with gift offerings of local merchants. Perusal of their offerings will convince one of the many advantages of "buying at home."

Stores here will be open evenings next week.

Torrance Pharmacy Will Award Chest Of Silver Dec. 24

The Torrance Pharmacy will present a chest of silverware next Thursday at 2 p.m. Shares in this valuable present are given with each 50-cent purchase at the Torrance Pharmacy. With each 50-cent purchase the Torrance Pharmacy is giving away a key. The person who has the key that will open the lock on the chest will be awarded the chest.

Torrance Mecca of Kiwanians of Two States on Friday

175 Delegates From California-Nevada District Will Attend Local Club's Charter Presentation at Women's Clubhouse

LIEUT.-GOV. OF DISTRICT WILL TAKE OFFICE

Many Notables of International Organization Will Attend Function Here; This City Proud to Be Selected for Ceremony

Friday night Torrance will be the capital of California Kiwanis. The occasion will be the installation of Kiwanis International district officers and the presentation of the charter to the Kiwanis Club of Torrance. The event will be a dinner-dance at the Women's Clubhouse and promises to be one of the most engaging affairs Kiwanis has ever staged in Los Angeles County.

Among the 250 who will attend will be approximately 175 Kiwanians and their families from out of town, including numerous Kiwanis notables.

Brook Hawkins, president-elect of the Los Angeles Kiwanis Club will be toastmaster. The meeting will be under the direction of Otho Ferris, lieutenant-governor of District No. 1, Kiwanis International.

Phil N. McCaughan of Long Beach, who was elected lieutenant-governor of the California-Nevada district at the San Diego convention, will be installed. Torrance Kiwanians are elated that this city was selected out of two states for this ceremony.

One of the features of the evening's program will be the leading of community singing by Hugo Kirchoffer, one of the best known and most capable song-leaders in the west.

George Proctor, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, will welcome the out-of-town guests.

Musical solos will be sung by Rose Rothleder and Irene Jordan. After the presentation of the Torrance club's charter, the new lieutenant-governor will be installed in office.

Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

The Kiwanis Club of Torrance was organized on Sept. 25, with 35 members. Officers of the club are: President, James W. Leech; vice-president, William Bell; secretary, James L. King; treasurer, L. V. Babcock; district trustee, Charles Schultz.

Members of the Torrance club are as follows: A. Aaland, C. W. Allen, L. V. Babcock, A. H. Bartlett, William M. Bell, Val J. Benesh, LeGrande Barkdull, R. J. Deinger, Paul M. Eby, J. H. Fess, Arthur Finster, M. J. Fix, Alfred Gourdier, Sam J. Gunn, Perry O. Guy, A. J. Haynes, E. W. Huddleston, O. J. Hobson, J. R. Jensen, James L. King, James W. Leech, A. W. Malone, Guy W. Mowry, C. A. Paxman, Ben Rappaport, Sam Rappaport, Charles C. Schultz, H. H. Stanger, C. A. Tansey, H. M. Tolson, Henry F. Ulbright, Dan Westergard, F. A. Zeller, W. H.

Mansfield, Charles T. Rippey, J. W. Patterson, William Gascoigne, George Steadman, St. Rappaport, Dr. O. E. Fossum, E. N. Tomkins.

Kiwanis International consists of 1400 clubs with an aggregate membership of more than 94,000.

The objects of Kiwanis International are as follows:

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
- To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship.
- To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.

To co-operate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which makes possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will.

Beacon Drug Will Give Away Turkeys

Turkeys for Christmas will be given away free by the Beacon Drug Store on Dec. 22. Shares in the turkeys are being awarded with every 50-cent purchase at the store.

Mrs. E. Shearer and Gordon Shearer, of Los Angeles, were entertained Sunday by Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Zeller of Marcelina avenue.

What Meat Will You Have for Your Christmas Dinner?

We have been helping you plan your Christmas dinner for the past month, by searching the markets over for the very best grades of meats and poultry. So you don't need to worry about the meat course, because we have been doing the worrying for you.

WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE

To Our Customers and Those Whom We Hope Soon to Have as Customers

That We Will Have as Choice a Lot of Steer Beef

PORK, LAMB, and VEAL AS WE EVER SAW. And we unhesitatingly recommend our Christmas Stock of Meats to you

Turkeys and Other Poultry

We have a fine lot of Extra Choice Colored Chickens and Ducks. This poultry was personally selected by L. Ott for his trade.

AND NOW ABOUT TURKEYS

Sunday we buy Turkeys, and if you will please give us your orders this week, we will select just the kind you want. Of course, we will have a few Turkeys on hand for those who forgot to order, BUT WE CANNOT GUARANTEE YOU FIRST CLASS BIRDS UNLESS YOU GIVE US YOUR ORDER BY SATURDAY NIGHT THIS WEEK. Won't you please help us to give you the kind of service we like to give?

Merry Christmas,
L. OTT.

I says to Hudd

Well it's about time for old Santa Claus to be doing his stuff again.

And a lot of money will be spent for useless stuff that will be forgotten by New Year.

But a few folks will buy presents that will really be used and appreciated for years to come.

And what could bring more joy than a lovely lamp for mother or wife, or a smoker for dad, or a hope chest for daughter?

Not to mention the easy chairs and end tables, and foot stools, and doll carriages for the wee miss.
